The 2017 spring term begins on Monday, February 6 and ends on Friday, May 19.

Austin Seminary offers the opportunity to audit courses to those interested in deepening their knowledge of the Bible, theology, and Christian ministry. Auditors are eligible to attend class but do not complete course assignments, take part in discussion, or receive evaluations or academic credit. Auditing requires permission of the course instructor.

All applicants to Austin Seminary, including Auditors, are required to complete the criminal history check process, including driving records, through Castlebranch.com, granting Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary permission to access those records.

The auditing fee is $150 per course; for participants age 65 and over the auditing fee is $100 per course. The auditing fee is waived for current degree students and their spouses.

Procedures for auditing a course:

1. Select a course from the listing provided by the Office of Admissions.

2. Contact the course instructor by phone or email to secure permission if required. Email addresses are provided in the course listings and also in the staff directory on our website, www.austinseminary.edu. Please send verification of the professor’s permission to the Office of Admissions.

3. Once you have the instructor’s permission, submit the Auditor Application, copy of permission from the instructor, and fee to the Office of Admissions.

4. Complete a Criminal History Check, including driving records, through Castlebranch.com. To grant Austin Seminary access to your background check, enter our institution’s code (AU33) when you submit your information online. The cost for this service is the responsibility of the student. Note that charges and past offenses do not automatically disqualify an applicant. All records will be evaluated in context. Contact the Office of Admissions for more information.

If a course you have selected is open, you will be registered for the course. In order to be registered, you must contact the Registrar (Jacqueline Hefley, 512-404-4826) to verify status on Friday, January 27 between the hours of 9:00 am and 12:00 pm or between 1:30 pm and 4:00 PM.
