Biographical Note:

John William Currie (1887-1951) was a Presbyterian minister in Mississippi, Texas, and Louisiana as well as a professor at Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia and Texas Presbyterian College at Milford, Texas.

Scope and Contents:

This collection consists of two pastoral record books kept by Currie from 1911-1926 containing registers of baptisms, marriages, membership rolls, funerals, and a log of sermons and locations where they were preached, including many revival meetings. Currie served in multiple locations, but the sermons are primarily from Cameron, Georgetown, Marlin, Mart, McKinney, and Milford, Texas and other pastoral care is primarily with the Cameron, Marlin, and McKinney churches.

These materials were originally held at the Montreat office of the Presbyterian Historical Society. They were transferred to the Austin Seminary Archives in 2007.

Restrictions:

Materials are available by appointment only. Contact the archivist for details.
