Descriptive Summary

Title: Heinz Joachim Held slides

Dates: 1952-1953

Accession Number(s): 2009-006

Extent: 100 slides

Biographical Note:

Heinz Joachim Held (b. 1928) was born in Wesseling, Germany on May 16, 1928. He was conscripted into the German anti-aircraft home forces during World War II. In 1947, he began studying theology. Held was an exchange student at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary for the academic year of 1952-1953. After his return to Germany, he earned a doctorate of theology from Heidelberg University and was ordained in November 1957. He served as a parish pastor in Germany before taking a teaching position in Buenos Aires. Held became the president of the La Plata Evangelical Church until he returned to Germany in 1975. He held several ecumenical leadership roles as a bishop for German language congregations outside of Germany and as a representative to the World Council of Churches and other international theological organizations.

Scope and Contents:

The Heinz Joachim Held slides depict Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, the University of Texas at Austin, Mo-Ranch, and Austin, Texas during 1952-1953. Also included are images of two parades: a University of Texas at Austin round-up and a celebration commemorating the inauguration of Governor Allan Shivers. The item level index was created by Held.

Held's curriculum vitae (in German) is available upon request.
