JUNKIN (WILLIAM FRANCIS) LETTERS, 1895, 1936

Descriptive Summary

Title: William Francis Junkin letters

Dates: 1895, 1936

Accession Number(s): 2007-009

Extent: 3 pages

Language: Materials are written in English.

Biographical Note:

William Francis Junkin (1870-1947), Presbyterian pastor and missionary, was born on December 26, 1870 in Rockbridge County, Virginia. He attended Austin College and received both a Bachelor of Arts (1892) and Doctorate of Divinity (1904). From 1893-1896, he attended Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Kentucky, where he obtained a Bachelor of Divinity. He was ordained in 1896 by the Arkansas Presbytery and became a foreign missionary to China (1896-1943). After leaving China, he served as a stated supply in Virginia until his death on May 27, 1947.

Scope and Contents:

The William Francis Junkin letters consist of two documents. The first is a letter written in 1895 to Samuel Mills Tenney, another Presbyterian pastor serving in Texas. The second is a printed holiday card from Junkin and his wife (1936) with an attached Chinese coin.

Materials in accession #2007-009 were originally held at the Montreat office of the Presbyterian Historical Society. They were transferred to the Austin Seminary Archives in 2007.
