

Austin Seminary Archives, Stitt Library

LONG (WALTER EWING) LANTERN SLIDES, UNDATED

Descriptive Summary

Title: Walter Ewing Long lantern slides

Dates: undated

Accession Number(s): 2007-010

Extent: 15 glass lantern slides

Language: Materials are written in English.

Biographical Note:

Walter Ewing Long (1886-1973) was a prominent businessman and civic leader in Austin, Texas. He served as the President of Presbyterian Work at the University of Texas from 1912-1913, and was very involved with the University Presbyterian Church in Austin. In 1924, Long created the "Century Class," a group capped at 100 students that participated in a Sunday School fellowship program under Long's guidance.

Scope and Contents:

Fifteen glass lantern slides, apparently from a slide show about the life of W. E. Long. Possibly created by the University Presbyterian Church. Slides measure 4" X 3.125".

Restrictions:

Materials are available by appointment only. Contact the archivist for details.

Index Terms:

Long, Walter Ewing.
Lantern slides.

Preferred Citation: Walter Ewing Long lantern slides, undated, Austin Seminary Archives, Stitt Library, Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary

Inventory:

| Box | Contents |
|------------|--|
| B077a | "Intimate glimpses into the Life of Walter Ewing Long (From the Family Album)," fifteen glass lantern slides [thirteen photographic, two textual], undated |