

Austin Seminary Archives, Stitt Library

McCURDY (A.H. PORTER) MANUSCRIPT, undated

Descriptive Summary

Title: A. H. Porter McCurdy manuscript

Dates: undated

Accession Number(s): 1996-035

Extent: 1 item, 21 leaves

Language: Materials are written in English.

Biographical Note:

A. H. (Andrew Howlet) Porter McCurdy (1854-1928) was a pastor of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., Synod of Texas, from 1880 through 1927. He was a corresponding editor, from the Presbytery of Western Texas, for the Texas Presbyterian (Houston, Tex.) from 1892 through at least 1895, and possibly thereafter. He was the moderator for the Synod of Texas in 1898 and he was a member of the committee which nominated the first Directors and Trustees for the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary at its inception.

Scope and Contents:

This undated manuscript, titled "Personal Holiness," is a theological discourse, instructional and moral, possibly intended for publication.

Restrictions:

Materials are available by appointment only. Contact the archivist for details.

Index Terms:

McCurdy, Andrew Howlet Porter, 1854-1928.

Holiness--Christianity.

Sex--Religious aspects--Christianity.

Preferred Citation: A. H. Porter McCurdy manuscript, undated, Austin Seminary Archives, Stitt Library, Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary

Inventory:

Box	Contents
C074a	"Personal Holiness," manuscript by A. H. Porter McCurdy, undated