Biographical Note:
David Leander Stitt (1912-2003) served as president of Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary from 1945-1971. Significant occurrences during his presidency include the construction of the library, increases in seminary finances, and a continued dedication to the selection and expansion of the faculty. Upon his retirement in 1971, the APTS Alumni Association created the David L. Stitt Fellowship for seniors and renamed the campus library in his honor.

Scope and Contents:
This collection consists of a scrapbook given to David Stitt by Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary librarian Norman Dow at Stitt’s retirement in 1971, with photos and scrapbook material documenting events from 1934-1955 and undated events. Photos of interest include the ground breaking ceremony for the seminary library and the midwinter lectures. Detailed identification of photograph subjects (when available) and the originals of the scrapbook material can be found in the holding record.
