

The Chicago Manual of Style

Correctly using citations is an important part of using the information you have found in scholarly research. Austin Seminary faculty have approved the Chicago Manual of Style as the official style guide for student work. Please check with your professor if you have questions about the style to use for a specific assignment.

Where can you find it?

1. On the student portal home page

- Under Research & Writing Resources

Chicago Manual of Style Online: Chapter 14 -- Notes and Bibliography \(login required off campus\)

2. At the top of any Sophi Search screen

New Sophi Search   Journal Titles   eBooks   Stitt Library Website   Chicago Style Manual

3. As a print book in the library

- In the Reference room or the general stacks, Call Number PE1478 .U69 2017

How do you use it?

1. www.austinseminary.edu/citations

Make sure to check out the Quick Cite Guide!

2. The Theological Writing Resources Page – linked from the student portal

Welcome   Book Reviews   Exegetical Papers   Reflection Papers   Research Papers   Citation & Style   Grammar & Mechanics

Introductions & Conclusions   Proofreading/Editing

Welcome

Welcome to the APTS Theological Writing Resources Page!
Austin Seminary is here to help you improve your writing and researching skills.

3. Using the Writing Resources books in the reference room

- Look for the red sign to the left of the newspapers!